Around
the Square

We're a bit crushed this week because no one commented—unfavorably—on the large banner headline of our last issue, which we thought was fairly funny. Of course, some people just don't like puns.

Anyway, here it is again. Maybe in small type the "humor" will be more easily spotted.

"DEPOT ALMOST A MEMOIR" AS COUNCIL AXES.
Laugh, doggone it, laugh!

We understand there were bets all around the business area this week on when the black-topping work would begin on the streets. When one merchant heard the work was supposed to start last Monday, he groaned:

"I'm ruined! There goes my week's pay check to —"

All townspeople are cordially invited to use "our" new PO mailbox. We proudly refer, of course, to the one installed this week in Hopper's Park. Stock in the park is soaring these days, incidentally, what with a new enclosing curb one week—and now the mail box.

You'd better hurry if you want to take pictures of the old PE Depot. Who knows, they might be valuable as souvenirs some day. Anyway, it's certain that the ancient structure won't be there much longer.

To quote the old bromide, "newspapers do not make the news, they merely report it."

The mothers of two youngsters, whose shenanigans made them figure in the news last week, must have lost sight of this truism because they lambasted us for recording the exploits of their "little angels."

To get "preachy" for just a moment, let us say this. If the parents would only train their children to keep out of situations where their actions become public record, there wouldn't be any unfavorable publicity.

Skutt Explains
'Age Shifts'
For Entrance

Superintendent Charles A. Skutt calls attention to an "age shift" which will affect kindergarten and first-grade pupils who register late for the fall semester at City School.

On or after Sept. 22, children must be 4 years, 9 months old to be eligible for kindergarten, and 5 years, 9 months old for entrance in first grade.

At present and for students entering as the semester begins Sept. 13, the minimum age for kindergarten is 4 years, 6 months, and for first grade, 5 years, 6 months.

The three months' difference after Sept. 22 is in accordance with recent California state legislation, Mr. Skutt explained.

Registration for kindergarten and other new pupils at City School is scheduled for Sept. 4 to 7 and Sept. 11 and 12. Superintendent Skutt pointed out that Sept. 3 and 10 are legal holidays (Admission Day, Sept. 9, falls on a Sunday).

Work Bids Due Sept. 11:

Triangle Plans Get City OK

Revised plans and specifications for the Kersting Court triangle walls and walkways were approved by the City Council at an adjourned meeting Monday night. The plans were prepared by Jacques Hahn, landscape architect.

Bids on the work will not be opened until Sept. 11, however, instead of Aug. 28 as originally scheduled.

After a lengthy discussion and a 40-minute recess, the councilmen denied the Lions Club request to move the old

Permanent Search
Party Forms Here

Formation of a permanent search and rescue party in Sierra Madre is under way this week.

The group—to be called the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Crew—will consist of expert mountaineers ready at a moment's notice to go track down lost hikers in the mountains above Sierra Madre.

Adopt Creed
At American Legion Confab

The "American Creed," formulated two weeks ago in Sierra Madre, is spreading like the "green bay tree." Last Friday evening, at the convention of the 18th District American Legion, the Sierra Madre creed was unanimously adopted on a resolution presented by Pasadena Post No. 13 and seconded by Altadena Post No. 470.

Copies were ordered made for the state convention of the Legion at San Diego next month and the national convention at Miami in October as well as for other patriotic organizations.

Realizing the significance of the movement, begun in Sierra Madre, Mayor William Kinney called a meeting of organization heads last Friday which was attended by President Charles Skutt of Kiwanis, President Harold Hamm of Lions, President Mary Buettler of the Woman's Club, President Nell D'Arcy of the Community Council, President Aaron Glaser of the Foothill Community Jewish Center, Harold Roberts, Rev. Carl Smith representing the Mayor Kinney and Col. W. D. Thurber, representing Judge

Day Campers
Plan 'Feed'
For Friday

Sierra Madre's annual city-sponsored day camp ends tomorrow on an appetizing note. Campers will take part in a closing day cook out. The menu, according to Recreation Director John Oden: corn on the cob and watermelon.

A total 106 boys and girls have been enrolled during the two weeks of day camping on the Youth Hut grounds. Mr. Oden said, however, that some of these youngsters are "re-peats" from the first one-week session and have been counted twice.

Playground activities at City School will be resumed Monday, Aug. 27, for one final week. Featured attraction of the program will be handicraft work in copper, Mr. Oden said.

The daily activities extend from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Youngsters should bring their own lunches plus a little money for craft materials.

CITY HIRES NEW POLICE OFFICER

Randall Sterling Fish was employed as a police officer by the City Council last week.

Officer Fish, who replaces M. E. (Tex) Gotcher on the force, reported for duty Aug. 15. He was hired for the customary 6-month probationary period at $245 per month.

'THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE
KOREA,' QUIPS SERGEANT

"There's no place quite like Korea—to be from," observed Sgt. Roy E. Griffin, 715 E. Grandview, who is now home after a year's duty in Korea.

The Sierra Madre soldier was in continuous combat for six months as a platoon sergeant in a heavy weapons company of the famed Second Division. He admits modestly that his unit saw "quite a little action."

It must have for the outfit has been presented the Korean Presidential Citation and at least one—possibly two—United States Presidential Unit Citations.

Sergeant Griffin, a regular Army man, rates the Chinese and Korean fighting men "just about on a par."

"I'd stack them up just about even," he said. "Both are a bit fanatical, but their fighting abilities are about the same. I guess the Chinese troops would rate a little better, however."

Sergeant Griffin said he personally saw the results of one or two atrocities committed by

KINNEY CALLS
C. D. MEETING

Mayor William A. Kinney has called a meeting of the Sierra Madre Civil Defense Council for next Wednesday, Aug. 29, at the City Hall.

Col. Charles Morrison, publicly director of the council, said the mayor will hear reports from all department heads. "We'll all be brought up to date again after a brief lapse this summer," he said.

The meeting will begin at 8 p.m.

City OKs Banners
For 'Dollar Days'

Banners calling attention to Sierra Madre's Dollar Days, scheduled for Sept. 6, 7 and 8, were authorized by the City Council Monday night.

The banners will be placed over the streets at the three entrances to town, according to Harold Stein, president of the Sierra Madre Businessmen's Association.

Putting up the banners will be under the supervision of the street department and Police Chief Gordon G. McMillan.

SCHOOL REPORT REFLECTS
EXPANSION OF DISTRICT

"Continued growth" was the keynote of the annual report of the Sierra Madre City School District, submitted to the Board of Trustees this week.

The report shows an increase in average daily attendance (ADA) of 84 kindergarten and elementary pupils over a two-year period. Two years ago, in 1948-49, the ADA was 549.34, and last year the figure was 632.45. Peak enrollment for 1950-51 was 671—plus an average 134 7th and 8th graders sent to Pasadena.

And a halt to the expansion is not yet in sight. Superintendent Charles A. Skutt said the anticipated enrollment at City School next fall is between 675 and 700 pupils.

All regular classrooms—including the new four-room addition—will be fully occupied this fall, Mr. Skutt said.

"Per-pupil-costs" also have increased, the superintendent pointed out. For the school year 1950-51, the figure was for 1949-50 and $189 for 1948-49. $200, as compared with $194.12. He listed three principal reasons for the higher per pupil cost. They are (1) the continuing increase in cost of all school supplies; (2) increase in salaries of school personnel, and (3) the increased amount and cost of maintenance work.

In a supplementary health report, School Nurse Hortense Wells listed some of the activities of her department last year.

The school district obtained the services of Dr. Yolanda S. Brunie last January and her twice-a-month visits have augmented.

Vincent James Webber of Los Angeles takes a dim view of Sierra Madre's street repair work.

As a driver of one of Safeways large truck and trailers, Webber was making a delivery at the local store one day last week. As he eased the giant vehicle out of the parking lot driveway, the rear wheels of his trailer sank into a 6-inch ditch where the new concrete gutter will go.

Webber complained to police that the jarring caused part of his load to shift and upset, mashing approximately 25 baskets of bread and cake. He did not estimate the financial loss to his company, but opined that the pastries were rendered unsaleable.

Street Paving Work Underway

A week or 10 days will see a lot of difference in the downtown street situation, Director of Public Works Glenn B. Watson promised today.

Black-topping operations began today on North Baldwin avenue. Paving is the final phase of the big project.

Council 'Holds Line,'
Sets Same Tax RatePOOL SEASON
EXTENDED TO
SEPTEMBER 9

Sierra Madre's Canyon Swimming Pool will remain open for an additional 9 days beyond the original closing date, John E. Oden, city recreation director, announced this week.

The summer season for the pool has been extended to Sunday, Sept. 9—including Labor Day, Sept. 3. It was to have been closed down Aug. 31.

Mr. Oden said after this week, however, there will be no more night swimming. "This isn't due to a lack of attendance, but because of a difficulty in arranging pool hours," he pointed out.

CITY TAX LEVY HIGHER DUE TO ASSESSED VALUATION

A city tax rate of $1.47 per $100 assessed valuation was established at an adjourned meeting of the City Council Monday night.

This was exactly the same rate under which the city has been operating during the past fiscal year, 1950-51.

But while the rate remains the same, actual money needed to be raised by taxation has increased by $4,111.64 over the '50-51 amount. The total tax levy was set at $101,384.77.

This amount will be raised on a total assessed valuation for Sierra Madre of $7,110,230—$493,010 higher than last year's assessed valuation when it was $6,617,220.

It was largely this higher assessed valuation that made possible the same tax rate in spite of an increased tax levy figure.

The city's general fund tax was set at the maximum allowable amount, $1 per $100 assessed valuation. Balance of the $1.47 city rate is in the following:

Interest and sinking fund, 19 cents; library fund, 15 cents, and maintenance and improvement of public parks, 13 cents. As was the case last year, there is no levy for the new library building fund.

The assessed valuation figures for Sierra Madre are broken down as follows: Value of land, $2,990,060; value of personal property, $531,740; value of improvements, $3,744,750; value of public utilities, $510,560; exemptions, $666,880.

Local Funds Used to Meet Flood Quota

Still $174 short of their quota, Sierra Madre Red Cross officials have decided to temporarily pay the balance for the Kansas Flood Relief out of the local ARC budget.

"We feel the need in devastated Kansas is immediate and urgent and that our money should go through promptly," said R. C. Lewis, Sierra Madre Chapter chairman.

Only $326 of the $500 quota had been received when the chapter's decision was announced Monday.

"We still hope, however, that enough money will be donated so the $174 can be replaced in the Sierra Madre ARC budget," Mr. Lewis pointed out.

Retain Angle Parking,
Local Businessmen Ask

Maintaining angle parking for Sierra Madre's downtown district was asked by the Businessmen's Association this week.

At its breakfast meeting yesterday, the merchants voted overwhelmingly to ask the City Council to retain angle parking because of what they termed "the acute shortage of parking space."

President Harold Stein said:

"We haven't enough space now and feel we certainly cannot get along with less."

The association not only will ask that the present angle parking be retained but that it be extended on Sierra Madre boulevard from Hermosa to a point east of Baldwin—possibly as far as Mountain Trail.

Mr. Stein said the merchants group also will later recommend that "several" short-period green zones be designated at various places in the shopping center.

It was brought out that not only does angle parking benefit businessmen but it is preferred by many women drivers as easier than parallel stalls.

A parking committee—for both short-term and permanent needs—was formed with Sam Perloff, Don Jackson, Jessie

Mt. Alverno
Welcomes
5 Novitiates

Saint Rita's Church was the scene Friday morning of impressive Reception and Profession Ceremonies of the Sisters of Saint Francis, Mount Alverno.

Entering the church, dressed in beautiful bridal array, five young ladies, before the Credo of the Mass, discarded the bridal veil at the altar in exchange for sombre brown and white garb of a Franciscan novice.

Appearing some moments later clothed as young religious, they received the following names: Guadalupe Barranga, Sacramento, Sister M. Brian; Genevieve Zembal, Aberdeen, Washington, Sister M. James; Patricia Como, Altadena, Sister M. Jeanne; Dorothy Whittaker, Bellingham, Washington, Sister M. Carolyn; Rita Provo, Seaview, Washington, Sister M. Louis.

Less dramatic in appearance, but fraught with deeper meaning, was the profession of the who have completed their three years of novitiate training at Mount Alverno.

Right Reverend Monsignor Thomas O'Regan officiated at vows of poverty, chastity and obedience made by Sister M. Felicitas, Sister M. Antoinette, Sister M. Maureen, Sister M. Virginia and Sister M. Claire, the ceremonies. The celebrant of the Solemn High Mass, Reverend Thomas Murphy of Santa Maria, was assisted by Reverend Joyce, C. P. and Reverend Gerald O'Keeffe acted as master of ceremonies and the sermon was given by Reverend Hugh Noonan, O.F.M.

Permits Issued
For Seven
Hanson Homes

Building permits for seven three-room houses of the J. C. Hanson Subdivision were issued by City Building Inspector William Lees last week.

Permits for the houses each were for $9200, and R. W. Cook was listed as the contractor-owner.

The subdivision extends off Michillinda on a new street called Edgeview. City Councilmen last week authorized the changing of the street's name from Burr Oak to Edgeview. An ordinance listing the change will be presented at the next council meeting.

Street numbers of the seven houses are 630, 640, 650, 660, 670, 605 and 615.

Miss Gibson Honored at Luncheon

A luncheon Saturday at the Plaza Community Center Children's Home was given by the alumni honoring the 26th year of Miss Elsie Gibson as head of the home. Edwin Beach, an attorney and graduate of USC and alumnus of the local home made the presentation of a silver tea service to Miss Gibson from the alumni and friends.

The Rev. W. H. Gilliland, D.D. was the master of ceremonies. Dr. Gilliland, a former Supt. of the Plaza Community Center of downtown Los Angeles told of his search for someone to take charge of the home. He had noticed Miss Gibson when she was a student at USC in some of the Religious Education classes. When she was invited to her present position she left a teaching position with a future to come to Sierra Madre.

Miss K. B. Higgins, another superintendent of the downtown center told of the growth of the home under Miss Gibson's guidance. Since opening, the school has cared for 150 children of Latin-American descent. The Alumni lives from New York to California, from Seattle to Washington to Venezuela and South America. Many letters from former members of the home were received by Miss Gibson and read at the banquet table.

The home located at 72 W. Alegria is set up to care for 24 homeless children. Many local people are interested in the well-maintained residence and several organizations help Miss Gibson by doing the weekly mending, etc.

When Miss Gibson was asked how it felt to have been "mother" at the home for 26 years, she replied, "It's just like home, and that is the way the children feel when they come back to visit."

PERK UP EVERYDAY MENUS
When you're looking for an idea that's just a bit different to perk up those everyday menus, turn your attention to the salad.

LEMON PEAR SALAD
8 fresh pear halves
1/2 C. lemon juice
1/4 C. salad oil
2 Tbsp. sugar
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. paprika
Shredded cabbage

Mix pears in lemon juice for at least 30 minutes. (Be sure the pears are thoroughly coated with lemon juice so they'll keep their nice color.) Drain. Put lemon marinade, salad oil, sugar, salt and paprika into a covered jar and shake well. Arrange pear halves on finely shredded crisp cabbage on four salad plates. Divide lemon dressing between the four salads.

MARCIAN'S RED CABBAGE SLAW
1 small firm head red cabbage, shredded
1/4 C. chopped parsley
2 or 3 green onions, thinly sliced
1/2 C. sour cream
Mayonnaise
Salt and pepper

Put cabbage, parsley and onions into a salad bowl. Fifteen or twenty minutes before serving time, scatter spoonfuls of the sour cream over the vegetables. Add a bit of mayonnaise, (just enough to moisten the salad) and salt and pepper to your taste. Toss to mix and chill until serving. That little standing time seems to blend these salad flavors to perfection.

SPECIAL FRENCH DRESSING FOR FRUIT SALADS

1/2 C. sugar
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. dry mustard
1 tsp. paprika
1 tsp. celery seed
1 C. salad oil
1/4 C. vinegar
1 tsp. onion juice

Put first five ingredients into a jar or shaker and stir to mix. Add oil, vinegar and lemon juice. Shake thoroughly. Store in covered jar in refrigerator and shake well before using. This dressing tends to thicken during refrigerator storage, and it is especially nice for salads made with fresh fruits.

Help Asked In Listing Paraplegics

Residents of Sierra Madre are asked to assist the National Paraplegia Foundation in compiling a complete and current list of paraplegics who live in the United States.

Civilian paraplegics, their families and friends can assure success of the national register by sending name, address, age, and type of injury to the Foundation, 1108 E. 48th street, Richmond, Virginia.

Present figures show that paraplegics—which is the term applied to persons who, because of spinal injury or disease, have paralysis of the lower half of the body—apparently number between 80,000 and 90,000. Veterans, whose records already are available through the VA, make up approximately 3000 of this group. The rest are civilians.

'A FEW BUTTONS MISSING' TELLS LEVELS OF MADNESS

by ISABEL STRADLEY

"A FEW BUTTONS MISSING," by James T. Fisher, M.D. & Lowell S. Hawley.

This book has been advertised by its publishers as an easy and delightful introduction to all levels of madness—the warm and humorous life story of the experiences and problems of a psychiatrist through half a century of practice. This conducted tour through the subconscious is both instructive and in places, hilarious.

Dr. Fisher studied medicine at Harvard—worked with Freud in Vienna before Freud became world famous; he has practiced in almost all branches of the psychiatric field. The book is the story of his career, including case histories of all types of abnormal patients. In addition there is a wealth of amusing anecdotes. It is a book to read aloud, and one you may even enjoy quoting!

Psychiatry is perhaps the most publicized and least understood branch of any profession in the world . . . for it is the study of man, his environment and his heredity, plus all the factors which affect these things.

In establishing financial wealth and a higher standard of living as a worthy goal for our physical and psychic drives, are we losing the very things we set out to gain—peace of mind, freedom from fear?

Man has to learn that he is but an integral part of the great co-ordinated drama of life—and not the only star of the show! He has to acquire a responsibility to contribute to his fellows, rather than attempting to exploit them.

The tempo of modern life is increasing. Man, unfortunately, is the product of how he lives—he must have a purpose, and purpose must be more than a belief; it must be a way of life. As tensions mount, there has come a call for respite, and a plea for some sort of remedy to ease the jarring and the din.

Dr. Fisher and his co-author believe that the trained psychiatrist can help immeasurably to tighten loosened bolts; can help man to live his life with less abiding fear, and tensions.

CHEST X-RAYS DUE NEXT FALL

Arrangement are being made to provide chest x-rays this fall for individuals in this area, according to Dr. Roy O. Gilbert, county health officer. The x-rays have been a feature of the case-finding program of the Los Angeles County Health Department since 1938.

The County Tuberculosis and Health Association is cooperating with the health department to stimulate interest and to secure community response to the program. Robert Elkin, field representative for the association, is assisting in Monrovia.

The county's mobile unit will be set up at strategic locations, specific addresses to be announced later, Dr. Gilbert said.

Honshu Heat Hits Soldiers Of Fortieth

SENDAI, JAPAN — Japan's main island of Honshu is hot this time of the year. It's not the desert heat familiar to Southern Californians who know the Mojave Desert and other arid spots. It's a humid heat that cuts off easy breathing . . . an exhausting heat.

Fortieth Infantry Division soldiers from Sierra Madre and the rest of the San Gabriel and San Fernando Valley areas—muscular bodies covered with a dark tan—insist the heat is one thing which accentuates their desire to flop on Balboa Beach or under the nearest tree—preferably in their own backyard.

By far the toughest period of their rigorous advanced training was spent during the past three weeks in battalion combat team exercises at Ojijihara Training Area.

"Ojo," as it is called, is a flat section of land surrounded by rolling hills and green rice paddies. Very picturesque to the eye, the area was considerably less interesting to the infantrymen who spent the first two weeks in almost continual rains and seas of mud, and the final week in the heat of Japan's "sunny season."

Much was learned by the 40th troopers in the BCT exercises. For most of them, it was their first taste of living 24 hours a day in a foxhole under simulated battle conditions.

It was also the first time that most 223rd foot soldiers have worked hand-in-hand with all of their attached units, including artillery, tanks, anti-aircraft and engineers.

They've come a long way from basic training amid the sands and fog of California's Camp Cooke, and they're toughened mentally and physically for any training which lies ahead.

Victor Rothe Follows Wife In Death

Funeral services were held Monday at Grant Chapel for Victor Rothe, well-known pipe manufacturer, whose death Thursday, Aug. 18, followed his wife's by only two months.

Mr. Rothe died at an El Monte sanitarium. His wife, Cora Brinck Rothe, had passed away June 8.

Originally an ivory carver, Mr. Rothe subsequently became prominent locally as a manufacturer of hand-carved pipes.

A native of Copenhagen, Denmark, Mr. Rothe came to California 29 years ago and settled in Sierra Madre 3½ years ago. In February he fell into a culvert and was injured while watching pipeline workers near his home, 635 E. Grandview.

Mr. Rothe is survived by several nieces, Erna R. Eriksen, formerly of Florida but now residing in Sierra Madre; Cora Anderson of New York, and Alfa Brinck of Denmark.

Dr. Ernest Wolfram officiated over the services Monday. Committal was at Pasadena Mausoleum.

The musician also directed choirs of the Winton Place Methodist, Shiloh Methodist, St. Matthews Evangelical and Asbury Third Methodist, all churches in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Smith also has done much public entertaining and radio work as a member of a "sister trio." This is the first church choir Mrs. Smith has accepted in the three years since her coming to California.

Fall season for the Chancel Choir will begin with rehearsals at the church Sept. 20, according to Mrs. Trula Sewall, chairman of the music committee, and members, Mrs. Mary Bancroft and Mrs. Katherine McBurney Kirk.

sible we may be able to complete rescues sooner than otherwise, less-trained search parties."

The Sierra Madrean also said there will be no leader or "boss" of the search and rescue team. Each man will know all the facts and be able to act immediately, without waiting for instructions which might be delayed.

At present the crew numbers "five, possibly six" qualified members. An additional seven or 11 men are still to be enlisted.

The spokesman said each of the present members already has saved at least one life in the mountains and can be considered "expert."

Sierra Madre Police Chief Gordon G. McMillan and the Sheriff's Captain Hannan of the Altadena Sub-Station have hailed the plan as "very worthwhile" and have pledged their support and cooperation.

The crew's spokesman said stretchers, axes, shovels, rope and walkie-talkie sets will be available through the sheriff's office and U.S. Forest Service.

In addition, each member must supply his own first-aid kit, snake-bite kit, canteen, knife and approximately 25 feet of rope.

PERCY CLAYTONS ENJOY TOUR OF EUROPE, ENGLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Clayton, 471 Santa Anita Court, recently returned from a 2½-month tour of the European Continent and British Isles.

The Claytons took one of the "Treasure Tours" visiting England, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Italy and France.

Highlight of the trip, according to Mrs. Clayton, was the stop-over at Lucerne, Switzerland. "Untouched by war, Switzerland is simply beautiful," the local woman exclaimed.

Another prized memory is the Sierra Madreans' boat trip down the River Rhine in Germany. "A most gorgeous trip," was the way Mrs. Clayton summed it up.

After the regular tour the Claytons stayed and visited Halifax, England, as guests of former school chums of Mr. Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. George Hackett. For Mr. Clayton it was his first trip back to England in 41 years. The Sierra Madreans visited Wales and Scotland with Mr. and Mrs. Hackett.

The Claytons returned aboard the Queen Mary and made the trip from New York by air.

Mr. Clayton is a linotype operator in the job department of the Los Angeles Times. He was an employee of the Western Linotype Company on Court Street when the Times purchased it in 1921, and has been with the Times-Mirror Company ever since.

Mrs. Clayton thinks Paris is over-rated as the acknowledged "capital of fashions."

Mrs. Oleta de Campo of Fashion Future was elected secretary of the association. Mrs. V. Hall and Mrs. Byron Hopper offered their services to assist Mrs. de Campo in her duties.

MRS. ROBERT CECIL RATLIFF

Vows Spoken in Saturday Evening Church Ceremony

The Community Methodist Church of Monterey Park was the scene Saturday evening of the Ratliff-Bursill wedding when Alice Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver J. Bursill, became the bride of Robert Cecil Ratliff at eight o'clock.

The bride chose a cinnamon linen voile with white embroidered edging over pink satin. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses, gardenias and lily of the valley. The crown hair piece was of the same flowers. The bride's attendant was her sister, Mrs. Alvin Galbreath, attired in turquoise organdy over taffeta; here flowers were pink roses.

The bride's mother wore a rose-colored gown for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was white.

The bridegroom's mother selected a gown of rose and gray. Following a week's stay at Falling Springs in the mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Ratliff will be at home in South Pasadena. Mr. Ratliff is the proprietor of "Tiny's Coffee Shop" in Sierra Madre.

cal team noted for their "Gay Nineties" routine.

Other performers included eight accordionists, who opened the show by playing the "Marianne Hymn" and closed it with "It's a Grand Old Flag," numerous dancers and singers. Pianist for most of the acts was Mrs. David Grahame, Pat Serripica was master of ceremonies.

Helping Mr. Welch plan the show was Patty Sherman, television songstress. Pappy hopes to put on other shows at Fort MacArthur and Inyokern this fall.

He had a special reason, though, for putting on this first one at a Marine Corps base. His son, Clendon Welch, died in 1929 while serving overseas with the USMC.

the enemy. "When one motorized patrol of ours failed to return, we went ahead to look for traces of it," the local man related. "We found that it had been ambushed, and the bodies of seven boys were strewn about on a mountain top. They had been shot in cold blood and stripped of their shoes and gloves," he said.

In another case, some sleeping American soldiers were bayoneted before they had a chance to get out of their sleeping bags.

"But this wasn't an atrocity case," the sergeant said grimly. "It was just war, that's all." Griffin also served as a platoon sergeant during World War II, fighting in the European Theater with a regimental anti-tank company of the 79th Division, U.S.A.

He returned to the States two weeks ago aboard the troopship, Joe P. Martinez, which docked at Seattle. He traveled to San Francisco by train where he was welcomed by his wife and parents. There are four children in his family.

After his 30-day furlough ends, Sergeant Griffin will report to Camp Roberts for re-assignment.

IT SOMETIMES TAKES TIME To Get To The Telephone

If you don't get your party at the first three or four rings, don't give up. Give him (or her) a chance to get to the telephone. People are often busy far away and are sometimes doing things they can't stop at once... like taking a shower, or putting the baby to bed.

It's a good idea to wait for at least a dozen rings before hanging up. Then you're pretty sure your friend is not at home.

OCD Prepares To Answer Anxious Calls

Establishment of central registration centers to provide speedy answers to an estimated 7,000,000 anxious calls following an atomic attack is included in California's Civil Defense program.

As quickly as conditions permit, after an atomic attack, trained registration teams will comb devastated areas compiling identification data to be eventually channeled to a central registry. There it will be catalogued according to a system previously adopted statewide, said Gen. Walter M. Robertson, state director of Civil Defense.

Studies made by the OCD indicate a possible 4½ million homeless, injured, and dead will require registration if several California cities are attacked at one time. Inquiries concerning individuals probably could not be answered much before 72 hours, General Robertson said.

Beauty and Beast at L.A. County Fair

The cream of the flocks and herds of the west are assembled each fall for the premier livestock show held in conjunction with Los Angeles County Fair in Pomona. This year more than 7000 head of large and small stock will be assembled in a record showing. Here Joyce Jewel is shown with one of the prize Herefords entered in the beef class division. The fair, this year, opens on Sept. 14 and continues through Sept. 30.

RUDBACHS SAIL SCHOONER HOME FROM PANAMA CANAL

John A. Rudbach and 13-year-old son, Jon, were sailing home Panama today following the joint purchase by Mr. Rudbach and two other wholesale lumbermen of a 60-foot staysail schooner, Marianne.

The Sierra Madreans expect the trip to take three weeks because of the round-about route they must take to avoid the seasonal hurricanes of the area.

Library Exhibits Famous Encyclopedia

Two hundred years ago, in 1751, the first volume of a great 35-volume monument of human knowledge was published in Paris. Approximately, just two centuries later, the complete work, Denis Diderot's "Encyclopedie ou Dictionnaire Raisonne des Sciences, des Arts, et des Metiers," has been presented to the Huntington Library by Keith Spaulding, a member of the Friends of the library.

Several of the handsome folio volumes now are on exhibit in honor of the anniversary year. The great French encyclopedia, called by Voltaire a "monument which honors France," contains more than 3,000 engravings.

But Mexican Customs officials took a dim view of the large bag apparently containing only rags. They felt sure there must be something of value in the bag—something being smuggled into their country. After searching and researching the contents, however, they finally gave up, Mrs. Rudbach related.

City Hires 'Dozer For Dike Work

Hiring of a bulldozer for constructing the third dike at the city spreading grounds was authorized by the City Council this week.

The dike will be built along the lines which recently were surveyed by the city. Cost of this project is not to exceed $2000, the councilmen said.

ANCIENT CHINESE POTTERY DISPLAYED

Greatest achievements in the field of pottery have been those of China, and a carefully chosen summer exhibition now at Pasadena Art Institute, 46 N. Los Robles, illustrates this art from the pre-historic period to the Ming Dynasty.

The first major pieces of Chinese pottery shown are great, fat jars some 5000 years old, which are decorated with bold, swirling designs. Far from being purely abstract decoration, each design had religious significance. Four examples of this powerful art are displayed.

FIRE FLAMES

The men of the fire department do not claim perfection in their efforts to clean up fire hazards, nor do they have complete success. There are many places found that do not meet with the requirements of safety.

Most of these are eliminated by the cooperation of residents who want to help. Occasionally, however, types of people are met who feel that they are being "pushed around" and defy everything offered them. Such is the case when a large pile of unsightly boxes, crates, old bed frames, parts of mattresses and dry trimmings and weeds were found and also reported by neighbors and passers-by.

What can be done after all types of kind offers have been presented and the resident still delays the removal? Explanations, offers of help, suggestions as to the removal, only add to the argument which has now developed.

When a person of this character is finally brought to court, who gains? It certainly would not be the fire department. We despise such action. The negligent resident would not gain, even though he won the suit. He certainly cannot regain the time lost.

In comparison, to clean up and remove the danger is much easier, less costly, and by far the safest and most proper.

A recent fire call brought out most of the fire fighters and a quick, well-done job was pronounced. Harold Spears, who happened to be at the Bank of Sierra Madre was the first to reach the trucks. After making a fine drive of the truck to the fire, he was compelled to retire to the cool of his car and take a back seat. Younger and more powerful blood took over.

The boys are to be highly commended for the manner in which the fire was extinguished. A large fire when discovered, it was not permitted to spread. Some of this can be credited to those who took action with garden hose before the arrival of the fire fighters.

Once more we repeat that a connected garden hose may be the means of saving a home. Keep one attached and handy for use. Little water can stop a small fire. Don't let the fire get big. Once a fire gets large, there is always a doubt as to when and where it will stop.

Our once shiny red fire trucks are now the color of a bay horse that fell in the muck. Because it has been necessary to remove them from the firehouse, they have been placed in the firing line of the street improvement dust. What a sight to see!

We are not proud of their appearance and we will clean 'em up when we can. Everybody is busy, these days. We can only hope that one of those unexpected rains does not develop. If so—well, the fire trucks will look like muck wagons.

When Tom Solary accompanied all those titled brother fire fighters to a demonstration in Azusa some time ago, he was somewhat chagrined not to be the bearer of some sort of a title also. At last week's fire meeting, he was called many things, some of which brought fines to the "Cuss Can."

When it was learned later that Tom has a fine basement with many cooling facilities, the titles he was given from then on were most creditable. Despite the fact that the "noise corner" was in evidence last

Lt. Mariotti Ends Rugged Bayonet Class

Second Lt. Val Louis Mariotti of Sierra Madre has been graduated from the III Corps bayonet instructors' school at Camp Roberts, Calif., and is now stationed at Camp Cooke with the 6014 Armed Service Unit.

Lieutenant Mariotti was one of 26 hand-picked officers and enlisted men chosen for the training and is now a fully qualified instructor, proficient in hand-to-hand combat. Cuts and bruises were proper marks of distinction in this rough and tumble course, designed to standardize procedures in the science of close-range killing.

Now living at 609 W. Alegria with his wife, Sheila Ann, Lieutenant Mariotti attended Pasadena City College and the University of Southern California before entering service.

He served overseas with the Eighth Air Force during World War II where he received the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with three clusters. The Sierra Madrean was commissioned in 1950 shortly before the local Heavy Mortar Company reported for active duty with the 40th Infantry Division.

CREED ADOPTED
Mead of the Masonic Lodge.
All present agreed that one of the best ways to implement the principles of "The Creed" would be for each local group to place strong accent on these principles at meetings to be scheduled this fall and winter.

John B. Long, general manager of the California Newspaper Publishers' Ass'n., announced that "The Creed" will be discussed at a meeting of the associations board of directors this week end at Lake Tahoe. There are 350 daily and weekly newspapers in the association.

Sen. Richard Nixon sent a warm letter of commendation for the work that Sierra Madre is doing to arouse the nation to a return of the moral, spiritual and ethical principles upon which the nation was founded. Colliers magazine has joined the list of national publications manifesting an interest in what is going on here in Sierra Madre.

ASSAULT CHARGE NETS $50 FINE

Charged with assault and battery, Richard LaLone last week paid a fine of $50 to Sierra Madre's city court.

LaLone, 1235 S. 10th street, Arcadia, had pleaded guilty to the charge of hitting Thomas J. Morrow, 311 Auburn, during a local parking squabble.

BENCH WARRANT ORDERED HERE

A bench warrant was ordered Saturday for Edwin D. Theall, 25, of Monrovia, after he failed to appear in court or post bail on a Sierra Madre traffic citation.

Theall is charged with speeding (50 miles per hour within the city limits) and disregarding a stop sign.

BURBANK NIECE

Stephanie Forrell of Burbank is a guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. F. MacNeill for a few weeks. She is enjoying the Red Cross swimming program.

'Speeding' Case Sentence Due

A fine of $30 probably will be ordered for a woman motorist who reportedly sped 50 miles per hour in a 25-mile zone and "ran" the stop sign at Mountain Trail and Sierra Madre boulevard.

The case of Floy Marie Shupp, 133 California street, Arcadia, was continued Saturday until Sept. 1. Judge John C. Mead indicated, however, that Mrs. Shupp's sentence would be $30 on the two violations.

Mrs. Shupp, who said she "dislikes speeding and never does as a rule," explained that she was forced to hurry to get her teenage daughter to PCC to register and to be back at work on time.

Play Planned as Fiesta Feature

Early California history will be revived with the presentation of "The Bells of San Gabriel" by the San Gabriel Valley Community Players at San Gabriel Mission Playhouse during Fiesta Days, Sept. 6, 7 and 8.

The colorful play, originally presented annually in San Gabriel's Mission Bowl before audiences of 5000 people, has a cast of more than 150 actors, dancers and Spanish musicians. Author-producer of the drama is Cora Montgomery, according to Lorne B. Pratt, playhouse manager.

MEXICAN ART DISPLAY OPENS

Paintings of several famous Mexican artists form the nucleus of an exhibit now featured at Pasadena Art Institute, 46 N. Los Robles.

Diego Rivera is represented by a large, colorful and decorative painting of a flower vendor, lent by Mr. and Mrs. Dell Hatfield, and by a cool, appealing yet typically monumental "Boy with Banana," from the Gaika Scheyer Blue-Form Collection.

From the collection of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Laughton comes the great portrait of the revolutionary Zapata, by David Alfaro Siqueiros; Charcoal drawings and water-colors by Jose Clemente Orozco are lent by Mr. and Mrs. Jirayr Zorhian.

EFFECTIVE AUGUST 23 THROUGH AUGUST 29

Look... Hear, Now!

BY STUART & JANE HEINEMANN

A prediction of what Southern California's television menu will look like a year from today can be gained simply by glancing at the public's TV preference a year ago. And just like the bill of fare at the local "greasy spoon," it's going to be unchanged.

Set owners in this area, the comparison shows, haven't changed their video taste one bit in the last 365 days. So, barring a few minor additions and deletions, it looks like another year of the same thing.

Only major program slip has been Hopalong Cassidy. His slide down the rating ladder was caused mainly by a change of time and station. Disregarding the cowboy with the limp, the "people's choice" is practically the same: wrestling, Spade Cooley, old feature films, Ina Rae Hutton, Beany, etc. The Ruggles, Burns & Allen, Alan Young, Space Patrol, too, still will be popular this season.

If they can keep up their pace, Martin & Lewis may take over one of the top rating spots, but chances are that KTLA's "Bandstand Revue," an old favorite, will go to the top soon.

Even the coaxial cable's arrival this fall, observers predict, isn't going to change local tuning taste very much. And color, with all its exciting possibilities, will have edged only into the tiniest corner of the TV picture a year from now. So don't throw away this week's log; it'll still be good in 1952!

Speaking of color TV, the CBS color-cast of a recent Brooklyn-Boston baseball game was a real thrill for Eastern sports fans—the few, at least, who saw it. Most press comments were favorable. One trade paper said that "every baseball fan has been waiting to see the green grass on his television screen; now he can relax and be happy—it looks exactly as it does on the diamond."

The first color sets on the market appear to be rather awkward furniture pieces because of the revolving wheel problem. Odds are 2 to 1 that the disc will be replaced by a color tube (probably in a deal between RCA and CBS, despite their publicized rivalry) before too many thousands of the present new color sets are sold.

ATTRACTIONS, CURRENT AND COMING—Lawrence Welk and his "bubbling" music back for another engagement at KTLA... Roller Derby, same station, starts August 26 for a two-week run... Evangelist Billy Graham has bought a new film show to start on KECA-TV, Sunday, Sept. 30 at 10 p.m.

KTTV's cameras are covering the U.S. Air Force Association convention this week end... Frank Sinatra, unbothered by his recent bad publicity with Ava Gardner, is prepping for his new fall TV series. CBS promises that the show, which starts in October, will be "a lively, entertainment-packed variety extravaganza featuring headlines in every field of show business"... Major Dell Conway of the Flying Tigers, probably the longest titled show in TV, has just started on KTTV, Sunday, 2:30 p.m.

CAPSULE CRITIC—KLAC-TV came up with a new panel show, packaged by Koplan-Crist and directed by Betty Turville. Titled "What's the Question?", program is a switch on the usual quiz format in that it gives the answer and poses the question. First guests included Bob Welch, movie producer, radio writer Carroll Carroll, actress Rosemary de Camp and announcer-carrier Marvin Miller.

Miss de Camp, attractive and poised, was show's most pleasing guest. Koplan, however, must learn to control his talkative panel. Sherr bedlam resulted on first show as everybody talked at once. Marilyn Hare got in a song, which added nothing much. Miss Turville, one of the few TV women directors, will most likely shake-down the quizzer into a good entertaining half hour. Guest sars will either make or break the show.

RADIO-ACTIVE... "Mr. District Attorney" and "Break the Bank" switch to ABC and KECA next month... CBS says singer Mario Lanza boxes, lifts weights, skips ropes and does calisthenics in his Beverly Hills home gym in training for his Sunday "The Mario Lanza Show." Wonder if he practices singing, too... NBC has talked the railroads into scheduling a special train in the South to bring several hundred passengers to the New York opening of "The Big Show," Oct. 14. It'll be called the "Confederate Special"... A Saturday night favorite for years, the "Hit Parade" moves to Thursday next month, a victim of TV.
